We will help you customize the perfect hotel wedding reception and ensure that this memorable occasion is seamless and special in every way. We will work to meet your specific space needs, menu requirements, and budget.

Guests, families, and members of the wedding party can mix and mingle before, during, and after your big day, extending the celebration with a rehearsal dinner or day-after brunch.

KAY CHAPEL

Kay Chapel was built in 1859 on land purchased from the Moravian Church as a replacement to the old Trinity School House, which still stands on the corner of School and Mary Streets. The chapel was dedicated to the memory of Nathaniel Kay, Collector of King's Customs in the early 18th century. With the addition of Cavalry Chapel, Kay Chapel and the multi-purpose parish house located behind it became the center of church life for Trinity until the 1960's and 1970's, when the chapel was closed and ultimately sold.

After an extensive restoration, the chapel has been reopened for use by The Hotel Viking. Many of the original details in the chapel remain intact, including the large stain glass window on the South wall of the nave, which once graced the altar in Trinity. Five of the other ten stained glass windows contain their original dedicated tablets. Cavalry Chapel, the tiny extension to Kay Chapel, retains its original woodwork.
